

MACS TeleECHO™ Clinic

Specially designed for providers in primary care settings

Providing collaborative medical education through web-based didactic presentations and case-based learning

Join us every 3rd Wednesday of the month from 12:30 pm to 1:45 pm for presentations and discussions with Drs. Michael Fingerhood, Devang Gandhi, Christopher Welsh and Bethany DiPaula, PharmD.

For more information and to register: www.marylandmacs.org/ECHO

Who Should Participate?

- Physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and physician assistants
- Pharmacists
- Counselors and other staff involved in the care of patients with substance use disorders

Benefits

- Monthly case-based clinical discussion
- Consultation with experts and your peers on how to manage challenging cases
- Focus on patient-centered care, harm reduction and best practices
- Free CME and CEU credit available

2021 Fall/Winter Primary Care Curriculum

September 15 th	New HHS Buprenorphine Practice Guidelines presented by M. Fingerhood
October 20 th	Microdosing for Switching to Buprenorphine from Long-acting Opioids presented by D. Gandhi
November 17 th	Motivational Interviewing presented C. Welsh
December 15 th	Patient Retention and Care Continuity presented by D. Gandhi
January 19 th	Ethical Issues in Primary Care SUD Treatment presented M. Fingerhood
February 16 th	New Street Drugs in Maryland presented by B. DiPaula